I can't put the AK47 sight on my G36C. Here I finally decided to write a little guide on how to choose sights for our legendary G36. In my time I tried a lot of different sights, shot a few hundred of them and sighed disappointedly every time. The sight for the G36 was and still is a stumbling block for the beginners, because all of them are very good and at the same time all of them are very different.
